

Submission 149 (translated)

My name is [REDACTED]. My home is in Pakistan. I am here in Australia. I have left trusting the destiny and fate. When a human could be changed, why not the destiny?

I swear on love = that love separated me from you = come on come on [illegible] = I always love you

We have always sold our dreams to overcome our hunger

- 1) My name is [REDACTED]. My home is in Pakistan. I have come to Australia. I have left trusting the destiny and fate. When a human could be changed, why not the destiny?
- 2) I swear on my love = that love separated me from you = come on come on dear = I always love you
- 3) We have always sold our dreams, to overcome our hunger
- 4) I left Karachi on a flight to Thailand. I came to Thailand. I stayed in Malaysia for one night, and after that went to Indonesia. In Indonesia, I went around with my friends. It was all good. I stayed in Indonesia for one month, and after that left for Christmas Island. I stayed in our boat for three days, and then the Australian army came, and they took all of us. And after that we stayed in our boat for three days, and then took us all to Christmas Island. We stayed in Christmas Island for 6 months, and after that we left for Nauru. We stayed in Nauru for two months. In Nauru, we had two interviews: one interview was for transfer and the other interview was for the camp.
