The immigrants at the Nauru Camp

It has been more than 6 months that the immigrants are at the Nauru Camp. Why? A human being may not have time to live in this world, so all human beings should have the same rights. We have to hold each other's hands. If any person takes the place of any other person who has been in a camp for 6 months, maybe then he/she might understand how hard it is to live in a camp. Without freedom, people cannot have good lives.
